CATEGORY 2

You must complete a plurality of assignments in this second category.

If you miss a few weeks (a bug in your academic approach) then no problem—keep the ten best grades

If you miss nearly all these assignments (thus a feature of your approach), then big problem

Active reading and consistent study patterns are the foundation of success.

 If you have read for three hours each week, and plan to continue doing so; if you have taken active notes, submitted questions, and plan to continue doing so; if you have practiced the quotes and maps, and plan to continue doing so, you should earn at least 800 ('B'). If you do drafts and peer edits, and try to improve between essays, taking the grade-sheet comments to heart, you should earn 800 ('A'). In other words, if you have expended college-level effort on this course, you should be rewarded.
